The number of Utahns enrolled under the Affordable Care Act has skyrocketed since last year. Randal Serr, the Director of Take Care Utah, breaks down the numbers and talks about the upcoming deadline.

Take Care Utah aims to help people find and understand their new options for affordable healthcare coverage by connecting them with trained enrollment specialists in their communities and neighborhoods.

Take Care Utah is a partnership between the Association for Utah Community Health (AUCH), the Utah Health Policy Project (UHPP), and the United Way 2-1-1. It offers outreach and enrollment assistance to Utah residents across the state. In addition, it provides training and resources to community based organizations that assist Utah's diverse populations and needs.

All services are provided free of charge.
