

Utah Gives Back

Take Care Utah

October 31, 2016

Shopping for health insurance can be confusing. That's why Take Care Utah is here to help. If you need health insurance, or want to pay less for the coverage you have, now is the time to check out your options during this year's open enrollment period that starts November 1st and ends on January 31st.

Take Care Utah is a network of nonprofit organizations working across the state to help you better understand and sign up for health insurance. No matter where you live in Utah, you can get free help from trained enrollment specialists. These experts can answer your questions over the phone, or even sit down side-by-side with you to help you complete your application. Remember that 85% of the Utahns who sign up for health insurance through the marketplace get help paying for their monthly insurance premiums.
