The next year will bring unprecedented changes to how Utahns access, pay for, and use their health insurance.

Join us for a full day of discussions and presentations that will help you prepare for the future of health reform.

December 07, 2016
Health Care Solutions 2016
Conference Agenda

Wednesday, December 7, 2016
Utah Cultural Celebration Center
1355 West 3100 South, West Valley City, Utah 84119

Breakfast and Registration (8:30am–9:00am)
Welcome and Introduction: Matt Slonaker (9:00am–9:15am)
Executive Director, Utah Health Policy Project

Making a Difference in Health Care with Collective Impact: Bill Crim (9:15am–10:00 am)
President and CEO, United Way of Salt Lake

Utah’s Health Care Index- Year 2 Tracking Progress:
Jason Stevenson (10:00am – 10:30am)
Education and Communications Director, UHPP
How does Utah look one year after our first Health Care Index?

Morning Break (10:30am-10:45am)

Dismantling the Affordable Care Act: What Might Happen and When? (10:45am-11:45am)
Moderator: Glen Mills – Chief Political Correspondent, ABC4

Lunch (11:45am-12:30pm)

A Fresh Look at Utah’s Diversity: How has Health Reform Helped Disparities Groups and Where Are We Still Falling Short?

Introduction by: Emma Housten (12:30pm – 1 pm)
Director of Diversity and Inclusion at Salt Lake County

#UHPPConf
Health Care Solutions 2016
Conference Agenda

Breakouts (1:00pm-2:00pm)

Hispanic Panel:
Panelists: Dulce Diez – Director of the Office of Health Disparities, Utah Department of Health (Moderator); Julie Contreras – Health Care Navigator at Utah Health Policy Project; Leticia Medina – Community Connector at Molina Health Care; Yehemy Zavala – Orozco -Communities United Promotora Coordinator; Grissel Reyes – Consumer

Refugee Panel:
Panelists: Caren Frost PhD, MPH – Director of Center for Migration and Refugee Integration (Moderator); Fatima Dirie – Refugee Community Liaison for Salt Lake City Mayor’s Office; Leonard Bagalwa – Refugee Case Manager at Health Access Project; Mikol Dudley – Health Care Navigator and Refugee and Immigrant Center: Asian Association of Utah; Tika Timsina – Director of United Mission and Social Service

Afternoon Break (2:00pm-2:15pm)

What ‘s Next? Access to Health Care in Utah

David Sundwall, MD (2:15pm-3pm)
Clinical Professor of Public Health, University of Utah School of Medicine

Intergenerational Poverty: Can we Tackle Persistent Poverty Without Addressing Access to Health Care?
(3:00pm-4:00pm)

Panelists:
Jen Nibley – Director, Arrive Utah; Tracy Gruber – Director of the Office of Child Care and Senior Advisor for the Intergenerational Poverty Initiative; Andrew Johnson – Salt Lake City Council, District 2; Ashley Hoopes Homeless Families Advocate
Moderator: Marjorie Cortez – Deseret News
Morning Keynote

Making a Difference in Health Care
with Collective Impact

Bill Crim serves as President and CEO of United Way of Salt Lake (UWSL). Most recently, he worked as UWSL's Senior Vice President of Collective Impact and Public Policy. He has worked for over 23 years on issues related to economic opportunity, health care, education and poverty – first as a research fellow for the Coalition on Human Needs in Washington, D.C. and then as a researcher, policy analyst, community organizer, lobbyist and executive director for Utah Issues. Bill joined UWSL in 2004 to help in its successful transformation to the Collective Impact business model. He led a team that created and implemented UWSL's public policy strategy, establishing the organization as an influential leader within Utah's local and state policy environment. In 2013, Bill helped facilitate the first “pay for success” transaction for early childhood education, helping make high-quality preschool available to 600 additional low-income children in several communities in Utah.

He has been appointed by Utah’s Governor to serve on the Utah State Health Data Committee, the Utah State Homeless Coordinating Committee, and the Utah Commission on Volunteers, and previously served on the Utah State Workforce Investment Board.

Bill began his career with the Utah Issues Center for Poverty Research and Action, where he served as Executive Director. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Utah with a Bachelors of Arts in Political Science, and is married with two sons.
Dismantling the Affordable Care Act: What Might Happen and When?

Glen Mills | Chief Political Correspondent, Anchor for ABC4 Utah

For this Beetdigger and Ute it's an honor to be doing what he loves in his home state! Glen is an award winning journalist, who joined the ABC4 Utah team in 2013. You can catch him weekdays anchoring ABC4 Utah News at 4. He also serves as Chief Political Correspondent, and hosts Utah's only statewide political talk show, Inside Utah Politics on Sundays at 8am. The Utah Headlines Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists recognized Glen as the best government and military television reporter in the state.

Chad Westover | CEO, University of Utah Health Plans

Chad has led UUHP since 2015, after previously directing Molina Healthcare of Utah. Chad was the inaugural director of the Utah Department of Health's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), and was founder and chair of the National Alliance for State CHIP Directors. He began his career as a research analyst for the Senate's Committee on Labor and Human Resources and then as a senior legislative assistant to Rep. Michael Huffington of California. Chad completed his bachelor's degree and his Masters of Public Administration at Brigham Young University.
Austin Bordelon | Leavitt Partners

Austin is a Manager at Leavitt Partners, where he conducts research and provides strategic advisement to a variety of insurance exchange clients. Mr. Bordelon coordinates a team of researchers that monitor the changing landscape of insurance distribution and consumer-driven market principles. He is also the project manager for the Private Exchange Coalition (PEC) and regularly assists Leavitt Partners clients with customer and market analysis, value proposition refinement, and market positioning strategies. Austin received his master’s degree in healthcare administration and a bachelor's degree in health sciences from University of Florida.

Robert Spendlove | Utah House of Representatives

Robert currently represents District 49 in the Utah Legislature where he serves as Vice Chair of the Health and Human Services Committee, while also working as a Senior Vice President and the Economic and Public Policy Officer for Zions Bank. His experience includes time as the Governor’s Deputy Chief of Staff for Federal Relations, Health Reform Coordinator, and Chief Economist. He served as the Chair of the Governor’s Council of Economic Advisers, and President of the Wasatch Front Economic Forum. Robert received a Master's of Public Administration at the University of Utah, where he is an adjunct instructor of public policy.

Eric Temple | Health Care Consumer

Eric is the owner of an Ogden-based video production company, Highway 89 Media. He and his wife have firsthand experience in navigating the health insurance system, both before and after the ACA. Temple is a Type 2 diabetic and his wife currently has metastatic breast cancer. They were enrolled in the state-run high risk pools in both Maryland and Utah, and have both positive and negative experiences with the new health insurance marketplace and its coverage options. Temple has a bachelor’s degree in broadcast communications from Northern Arizona University.
A Fresh Look at Utah’s Diversity: How has Health Reform Helped Disparities Groups & Where We Are Still Falling Short?

Emma Houston | Director of Diversity and Inclusion at SLCO

A longtime community volunteer, Emma has been on the county’s Council on Diversity Affairs since 2013. She is the former chairwoman of the Governor’s Office of Ethnic Affairs and currently serves on the YWCA Board, UAA/SCANS Board, and Reverend France A. Davis Scholarship Board. Emma hails from Texas, lived in Florida for 10 years and has been a resident of Utah since 1986.

Emma brings her collaborative skills and community connections to the position and looks forward to working with all communities.

Disparities Breakouts: Hispanic Utahns

Dulce Diez | Director of the Office of Health Disparities, Utah Department of Health / Moderator

Dulce’s current work focuses on promoting health equity at the Utah Department of Health by fostering evidence-based practices. Dulce is an avid traveler who likes to call herself a “citizen of the world” and she believes diversity enriches our lives making us more sympathetic and tolerant.

Julie Contreras | Health Care Navigator at UHPP

Julie was born in Chicago, IL, grew up most of her life in Mexico City, and for the last 15 years she’s resided in Utah. She is working on her social work B.S. Because of her desire to empower and inform communities about health issues, she decided to join the UHPP team to help underserved populations with the process of obtaining medical insurance.

Leticia Medina | Community Connector at Molina Health Care

Leticia has extensive experience working with underprivileged and high-risk populations for over 30 years. She is the former director of the state’s Office of Hispanic Affairs Director for the State Community Services. Ms. Medina continues to advocate for families who are under-served, and provides training to various national, state, and local organizations and families. She is the recipient of the Good Housing Keeping’s Women in Government Award and a recipient of the National FBI Director’s Community Leadership award.
Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.

Yehemy Zavala-Orozco | Communities United Promotora Coordinator

Yehemy has worked for Communities United(CU) since 2011, and has focused on reducing ethnic and immigrant health disparities related to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, cancer, and access to clinical care. During her time at Communities United, Yehemy served as a Community Health Worker (Promotora de Salud), Prenatal Coordinator, Doula, SNAP Enrollment Specialist, and as one of the only Latina National Trainers for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) in the United States. Yehemy now proudly serves as CU’s Promotora Coordinator.

Grissel Reyes | Consumer

Grissel was born and raised in Mexico City, moving to the United States at the age of 16. She has lived in Salt Lake City Utah since then. She has a high school education and plans to return to school in the future. Because of her desire to help others, she became part of a program in her church that offers classes for children where she teaches. She has two jobs, specialty print finishing and work as a security agent for the business services provider.

Caren Frost PhD, MPH | Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Integration / Moderator

Caren Frost’s research and teaching at the University of Utah center on improving health and overcoming barriers to health care, especially for women, refugees, and underserved international populations. She serves on the state’s Refugee Women’s Health Committee and co-chairs the University of Utah’s Institutional Review Board. Dr. Frost earned her master’s degree in public health from Columbia University, and her PhD in anthropology from the University of Utah.

Fatima Dirie | Refugee Community Liaison for SLC Mayor’s Office

Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.

Disparities Breakouts: Refugees

Yehemy Zavala-Orozco | Communities United Promotora Coordinator

Yehemy has worked for Communities United(CU) since 2011, and has focused on reducing ethnic and immigrant health disparities related to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, cancer, and access to clinical care. During her time at Communities United, Yehemy served as a Community Health Worker (Promotora de Salud), Prenatal Coordinator, Doula, SNAP Enrollment Specialist, and as one of the only Latina National Trainers for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) in the United States. Yehemy now proudly serves as CU’s Promotora Coordinator.

Grissel Reyes | Consumer

Grissel was born and raised in Mexico City, moving to the United States at the age of 16. She has lived in Salt Lake City Utah since then. She has a high school education and plans to return to school in the future. Because of her desire to help others, she became part of a program in her church that offers classes for children where she teaches. She has two jobs, specialty print finishing and work as a security agent for the business services provider.

Caren Frost PhD, MPH | Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Integration / Moderator

Caren Frost’s research and teaching at the University of Utah center on improving health and overcoming barriers to health care, especially for women, refugees, and underserved international populations. She serves on the state’s Refugee Women’s Health Committee and co-chairs the University of Utah’s Institutional Review Board. Dr. Frost earned her master’s degree in public health from Columbia University, and her PhD in anthropology from the University of Utah.

Fatima Dirie | Refugee Community Liaison for SLC Mayor’s Office

Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.

Disparities Breakouts: Refugees

Yehemy Zavala-Orozco | Communities United Promotora Coordinator

Yehemy has worked for Communities United(CU) since 2011, and has focused on reducing ethnic and immigrant health disparities related to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, cancer, and access to clinical care. During her time at Communities United, Yehemy served as a Community Health Worker (Promotora de Salud), Prenatal Coordinator, Doula, SNAP Enrollment Specialist, and as one of the only Latina National Trainers for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) in the United States. Yehemy now proudly serves as CU’s Promotora Coordinator.

Grissel Reyes | Consumer

Grissel was born and raised in Mexico City, moving to the United States at the age of 16. She has lived in Salt Lake City Utah since then. She has a high school education and plans to return to school in the future. Because of her desire to help others, she became part of a program in her church that offers classes for children where she teaches. She has two jobs, specialty print finishing and work as a security agent for the business services provider.

Caren Frost PhD, MPH | Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Integration / Moderator

Caren Frost’s research and teaching at the University of Utah center on improving health and overcoming barriers to health care, especially for women, refugees, and underserved international populations. She serves on the state’s Refugee Women’s Health Committee and co-chairs the University of Utah’s Institutional Review Board. Dr. Frost earned her master’s degree in public health from Columbia University, and her PhD in anthropology from the University of Utah.

Fatima Dirie | Refugee Community Liaison for SLC Mayor’s Office

Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.

Disparities Breakouts: Refugees

Yehemy Zavala-Orozco | Communities United Promotora Coordinator

Yehemy has worked for Communities United(CU) since 2011, and has focused on reducing ethnic and immigrant health disparities related to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, cancer, and access to clinical care. During her time at Communities United, Yehemy served as a Community Health Worker (Promotora de Salud), Prenatal Coordinator, Doula, SNAP Enrollment Specialist, and as one of the only Latina National Trainers for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) in the United States. Yehemy now proudly serves as CU’s Promotora Coordinator.

Grissel Reyes | Consumer

Grissel was born and raised in Mexico City, moving to the United States at the age of 16. She has lived in Salt Lake City Utah since then. She has a high school education and plans to return to school in the future. Because of her desire to help others, she became part of a program in her church that offers classes for children where she teaches. She has two jobs, specialty print finishing and work as a security agent for the business services provider.

Caren Frost PhD, MPH | Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Integration / Moderator

Caren Frost’s research and teaching at the University of Utah center on improving health and overcoming barriers to health care, especially for women, refugees, and underserved international populations. She serves on the state’s Refugee Women’s Health Committee and co-chairs the University of Utah’s Institutional Review Board. Dr. Frost earned her master’s degree in public health from Columbia University, and her PhD in anthropology from the University of Utah.

Fatima Dirie | Refugee Community Liaison for SLC Mayor’s Office

Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.

Disparities Breakouts: Refugees

Yehemy Zavala-Orozco | Communities United Promotora Coordinator

Yehemy has worked for Communities United(CU) since 2011, and has focused on reducing ethnic and immigrant health disparities related to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, cancer, and access to clinical care. During her time at Communities United, Yehemy served as a Community Health Worker (Promotora de Salud), Prenatal Coordinator, Doula, SNAP Enrollment Specialist, and as one of the only Latina National Trainers for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) in the United States. Yehemy now proudly serves as CU’s Promotora Coordinator.

Grissel Reyes | Consumer

Grissel was born and raised in Mexico City, moving to the United States at the age of 16. She has lived in Salt Lake City Utah since then. She has a high school education and plans to return to school in the future. Because of her desire to help others, she became part of a program in her church that offers classes for children where she teaches. She has two jobs, specialty print finishing and work as a security agent for the business services provider.

Caren Frost PhD, MPH | Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Integration / Moderator

Caren Frost’s research and teaching at the University of Utah center on improving health and overcoming barriers to health care, especially for women, refugees, and underserved international populations. She serves on the state’s Refugee Women’s Health Committee and co-chairs the University of Utah’s Institutional Review Board. Dr. Frost earned her master’s degree in public health from Columbia University, and her PhD in anthropology from the University of Utah.

Fatima Dirie | Refugee Community Liaison for SLC Mayor’s Office

Fatima Dirie was born in Barawa, Somalia. In 1994 due to a civil war, her family was forced to move to Mombasa, Kenya and later, at the age of nine she came to the United States as a refugee, where she began to pursue her dreams of higher education. She received her Masters Degree in Social Work with an emphasis in global social work in 2014. Fatima has over a decade of experience with refugees and immigrants, in advocacy, case management, community development and Youth leadership development.
Leonard Bagalwa | Refugee Case Manager at Health Access Project

Leonard is a refugee from the Democratic Republic of Congo. He spent time in many poor countries and refugee camps prior to being resettled in the United States. After completing his undergraduate degree in Public and Community Health Education at Utah Valley University in 2012, he is now pursuing a Master’s in Public Health and Public Administration. He has 5 years of experience working with refugees in Utah, Leonard is committed to maximizing the positive impact he can make in the world to bless many individuals. Leonard is currently working as a certified application counselor and Refugee Case Manager at Health Access Project. He helps low income and uninsured refugees gain access to medical care.

Mikol Dudley | Health Care Navigator at Refugee and Immigrant Center: Asian Association of Utah

Mikol loves the people he works for and with. His job as a navigator has given him a new understanding of the challenges with health care and being a refugee. He has been working with the Affordable Care Act since the first year it began. So if you’re having problems with the marketplace website now, it’s nothing compared to that first year.

Tika Timsina | Director of United Mission and Social Service

Tika is the Director of a Certified Application Counselor organization serving Nepalis called “United Mission & Social Service.” He has a Bachelors Degree of Graphics, Multimedia & Computer Applications, a Professional Certificate in Case Work Management from the University of Utah, and a Professional Certificate in refugee nonprofit leadership management from Salt Lake Community College.
Afternoon Keynote

What's Next? Access to Health Care in Utah

Dr. Sundwall is a Clinical Professor of Public Health at the University of Utah’s Department of Family and Preventative Medicine where he has been a faculty member since 1978. He also served as Executive Director of the Utah Department of Health and Commissioner of Health for the State of Utah, from 2005 through 2010. He served on numerous government and community boards and advisory groups in his home state, including Chair of the Utah State Controlled Substance Advisory Committee (CASC) and as Vice Chair of the federal Medicaid and CHIP Payment and Access Commission [MACPAC], from 2010-2014. He is on the Board of Directors for the Maliheh Free Clinic and the Chief Medical Officer for Rocky Mountain Care. Nationally he serves on the Board of Directors for Senior Whole Health in Boston, MA.

He has chaired or served on several committees of the Institute of Medicine (IOM) including the Standing Committee on Health Threats Resilience, and the Committee on Department of Homeland Security Occupational Health and Operational Medicine Infrastructure. Prior to returning to Utah in 2005, he was President of the American Clinical Laboratory Association (ACLA), and prior to that was Vice President and Medical Director of American Healthcare Systems (AmHS). Dr. Sundwall’s federal government experience includes serving as Administrator of the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), Assistant Surgeon General in the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service, and Director of the Health and Human Resources Staff of the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee.

He received his medical degree from the University of Utah - School of Medicine, and completed residency in the Harvard Family Medicine Program. He was honored as “Utah Doctor of the Year” in 2014 by the Utah Medical Association. He is a licensed physician, board certified in Internal Medicine and Family Practice, and works as a primary care physician in a public health clinic two-half days each week.
Intergenerational Poverty: Can We Tackle Persistent Poverty Without Addressing Access to Health Care?

Moderator: Marjorie Cortez | Deseret News

Jen Nibley | Director of Arrive Utah

Jen is the Director of Arrive Utah, an organization that unites Utahns to ensure each individual and family can thrive. Jen is a Certified Bridges Out of Poverty Trainer and a Regional Trainer for Circles USA—an initiative to help communities resolve poverty. Jen has worked with regional and statewide nonprofits for more than 18 years, including 12 years focused on families living in poverty. Jen has a BA in Public Relations from Brigham Young University and studied in the Masters of Communications and Leadership Program with Gonzaga University.

Tracy Gruber | Director of the Office of Child Care and Senior Advisor for the Intergenerational Poverty Initiative

Tracy’s professional career has been focused on achieving positive results for vulnerable families. Prior to joining DWS, Tracy worked at Voices for Utah Children, as a Senior Policy Analyst and Director of State Fiscal Policy. In that capacity, she researched issues related to poverty, fiscal policy and strategies to reduce poverty including two-generation approaches for families in poverty. She also worked as a budget analyst in the Illinois Senate, and administered the Utah State Bar’s New Lawyer Training Program.

Andrew Johnson | Salt Lake City Council, District 2

Andrew is serving his first term on the Salt Lake City Council representing the west-side District Two. As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Andrew has spent over a dozen years working with issues of homelessness, mental health and addiction in both Utah and Maine. His professional experience spans various non-profit agencies including Youth Alternatives Inc., Volunteers of America Utah, and Intermountain Healthcare.

Ashley Hoopes | Advocate for Homeless Families

Ashley has been supporting homeless families for a decade. She started a volunteer-run preschool at The Road Home shelter, and also formed a private support group of middle-class allies to assist vulnerable families find and retain housing. Ashley earned a Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Utah and will receive a Master of Public Administration in the spring of 2017.
Welcome to our annual convening to discuss cutting-edge health policy issues directly impacting the lives of Utahns.

We appreciate your attendance and look forward to hearing from you today and collaborating with you in the future.

Matt Slonaker | Executive Director of Utah Health Policy Project

Born, raised, and educated in the Rocky Mountains, Matt became UHPP’s executive director in September 2013. Educated at the University of Montana, he took an early interest in policy and government, first studying political science and economics, then going on to complete a law degree. Shortly after law school, Matt joined Governor Brian Schweitzer’s budget team in Helena working as an economist and tax policy analyst. Washington, DC was the next career stop when Matt began work for Senate Finance Committee Chairman Max Baucus. While serving as nonprofits policy adviser & outreach coordinator, Matt had the opportunity to work on two pieces of landmark legislation: the Affordable Care Act and the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. Matt went from staffer to advocate upon taking a position in New York City at Care for the Homeless, where he helped coordinate a coalition of providers of health care for the homeless in dealing with state Medicaid policy. Happy to again be working in the West, Matt is working hard with his team and partners in the community to develop strategies that strengthen Utah’s health care system.
Sri Koduri | Chair, Utah Health Policy Project Board of Trustees

Sri is accomplished in translating research results into tools that drive policy and implementation. She enjoys working with people, building partnerships, and is best known as a strategist and a facilitator. She has a degree in Electrical Engineering from India and two Master’s degrees from the University of Utah: Computational Sciences and Public Administration. Sri has a passion for health policy, education and equity.

In her role as the Director for Graduate Medical Education (GME) Strategy and Workforce Planning for the University of Utah Medical Group (UUMG), Sri is responsible for evaluating and planning the right mix of health care professionals for the University of Utah health system. Sri also serves as the Chief Strategist for the new University of Utah School of Dentistry and a member of the University of Utah President’s Commission on the Status of Women. In addition to serving as Board Chairwoman for UHPP, she is the Past President of the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Administration and Policy local chapter, as the Chair Elect of the Utah Oral Health Coalition,
Special Thanks to our Conference Sponsors

AARP®
Real Possibilities

Intermountain Healthcare
Healing for life®

selecthealth®

Molina Healthcare

University of Utah Health Plans

American Academy of Pediatrics
DEDICATED TO THE HEALTH OF ALL CHILDREN™
Utah Chapter

Health Choice Utah

Utah Community Action
Committed to Ending Poverty

AUCH
ASSOCIATION FOR UTAH COMMUNITY HEALTH
Follow us on Twitter!

@UHPP

@TakeCareUtah

Like us on Facebook!

Utah Health Policy Project

Take Care Utah

#UHPPconf