

111,000

is the number of Utahns who would benefit from increased access to healthcare coverage

57,000

is the number of Utahns living in the coverage gap without access to affordable health insurance

26

is the number of months Utah has not increased access to affordable health insurance for low-income Utahns

10

is the number of times Medicaid expansion has been an agenda item at the Health Reform Task Force since 2012

2

is the number of general legislative sessions elapsed without finding a solution

1

is the number of solutions that adequately bring together conservative ideals and smart policy to close to the coverage gap