Take Care Utah's 2nd Annual Family Festival and Health Event

WHAT: Learn about new affordable health insurance plans at this family-friendly event. Kids can enjoy games, face-painting, snacks, and balloon animals while their parents get free health screenings and sign up for health insurance. All activities are free.

WHERE: Sorenson Unity Center | 1383 S. 900 W. Salt Lake City, Utah 84104

WHEN: Friday | November 21 | 3pm-8pm

On Friday November 21, 2014—from 3pm to 7pm—Utahns can get free help finding health insurance that works for them at the 2nd Annual Family Festival and Health Event.

This family-friendly festival takes place a few days after open enrollment begins for new and affordable health insurance plans in Utah. Families can learn about new health insurance plans and benefits, see if their kids qualify for Medicaid or CHIP insurance, and discover if they qualify for financial help to make their insurance more affordable. Trained experts will be there to answer any questions and sign people up for a plan that works for them. All enrollment services are completely free.

Event Activities

- Free help finding health insurance provided by trained navigators and assistors
- Games, face-painting, snacks, and balloon animals for kids
- Health screenings
- All activities and assistance is free

Media Note:

- Local media are welcome. Please RSVP to Jason Stevenson (stevenson@healthpolicyproject.org); 617-290-8188
